'Light the Fire!' Discovery Weekend

A time to dream, scheme, and build our future

This lively weekend will explore a new, more relevant and vibrant vision for Unitarianism through worship, dialogue, music and imagination.

Be part of our message for the future!

Date: 28 - 30 January 2011

Cost: £160 full adult, £100 concessions for under 35s and new Unitarians

Venue: The Friars, Aylesford, Kent

Several Meadow members have already booked - for more information please speak to Louise Baumberg (01483 537206)

Godalming Unitarians provide opportunities for spiritual engagement in an open and non-judgemental community, where shared values are more important than shared beliefs.

Joining a liberal church never signifies that one has arrived at a set of beliefs, but only agreement to a process of open inquiry. Joining this church then is not a point of arrival, but a point of departure, an agreement that we shall help one another on our journeys and in what we hope is for each of us a lifetime enterprise.

- Words of John Cummins, quoted by Rev Linda Hart in her service 4th July
