

Godalming Unitarians

meeting at Meadow Chapel

February 2012 Calendar

Sunday Services at 11:00 am

- 5th Bert Clough, Meadow member
"The Sea of Faith"—a network which promotes the validity of creative, human-centred religion. Like Unitarianism it has no creed.
- 12th Sheena Gabriel, Lay Leader at Meadow
"Let the beauty we love be what we do"
Children's activities in the Hall led by Lily Reif
Chapel Committee Meeting 12:30 in the Gallery
- 19th Jef Jones, Lay Leader at Brighton and soon-to-be Ministry student
- 27th Louise Baumberg, Meadow member A Family Service—children of all ages welcome—to mark Fairtrade fortnight. There will also be a Fairtrade stall of items for purchase.
Shared lunch—please bring a sweet or savoury dish to share

Fairtrade Fortnight 27th February -11th March - We have been using Fairtrade tea, coffee and sugar at Meadow for years - why not try to use fairly-traded ingredients in a dish you bring to the shared lunch? - and tell us about it! There will also be a wide range of Fairtrade products to buy from a stall during the lunch.

Many many thanks...

- To Nick Morrice for organising and Nikki Whent for leading the talk on Happiness which attracted around 30 people and raised money for an animal sanctuary and for chapel maintenance. According to Dr Robert Holden, the secret of Happiness is Self-Acceptance. A spiritual approach, and cultivating a sense of gratitude helps too.
- To the congregation of 22nd January who donated £130 to the District Social Action Fund. David Usher invites suggestions about how the Fund might be used in the Bethnal Green area of London.
- To newcomers who are volunteering to help with Tea and Greeting Duties. We all appreciate the opportunity to chat over a cuppa after the service, so this is a very simple way to support our community.

Other Diary Dates

Wednesdays 1, 8, 15, 22, 29 February 7:00 - 8:30 pm Meditation in the Chapel. (Silence from 7:30 - 8:00) Contact Sheena Gabriel/Rob Oulton

3-5 FUSE (Festival of Unitarians in the South-East) gathering at Worthing for celebration, inspiration and Education. Eleven from Meadow attending.

Monday 6 February 12:30 pm Funeral at Guildford Crematorium of Joan Houghton after a long period in residential care. Joan, along with her late husband and organist Chas, was an Honorary Member of Meadow, and contributed much to the life of the Chapel. Contact: Sheena Gabriel for further information

Tuesday 7th February 8 pm Open meeting of Worship Group at 15 Home Farm Rd Godalming. All Welcome Contact: Sheena Gabriel

Tuesday 14 February 8:00 pm Chapel — Twelve Steps to a Compassionate Life group's eleventh meeting

Saturday 18 February 10—4:30 Cross Street Chapel, Manchester. David Dawson conducts a recording of 50 more Hymns from Hymns for Living (the Green Book). These CDS are a valuable resource for congregations without organists; Adrienne, Jeff and Sue will attend. We are indeed fortunate at Meadow to have a rota of no fewer than 4 musicians!

Thursday 23rd February 1 - 3 pm Community Art/"Cuppa" in the Hall - all welcome.

Tuesday 28 Feb— Thursday 1 March Sheena will attend a Conflict Resolution training session at the Nightingale Centre, Great Hucklow, which has been commissioned by the Local Leadership Strategy Group of the General Assembly. A similar workshop was held for Ministers at their autumn gathering with very positive feedback.

AGM 22 January 12:30 pm

A successful AGM was held in the presence of 19 members and attenders. Thanks were expressed to Bill Hayhurst who stood down from the committee. A welcome to newly elected members Laurie Kulcher and Sue Teagle was given by the re-elected chair, Christine Martin. The accounts were duly accepted. Jeff Teagle noted our good fortune in not facing major expenditure on our buildings. David Usher representing the LDPA spoke of changes to the Constitution to be debated and then voted on at the District AGM 24 March. In the absence of a congregational AwayWeekend this year, outings to Winkworth Arboretum, Watts Gallery, and the District meeting at Lewes 16 June were suggested.
